

PHILOSOPHY, MINOR

College of Letters & Science

Advising Office

Staff advisors are located in the Blue Ridge Office Building. For information about how to contact a major advisor, see Major Advising (<https://yellowcluster.ucdavis.edu/advising/undergraduate/major-advising/>).

Students wishing to minor in Philosophy may choose a general minor or a minor specializing in logic. There are no specific courses required for the general minor, so students may create a program to suit their own interests. The range of choice in the logic specialization is limited to the courses listed.
